Population Is Shown By Compilation.

NEW YORK, Dec. 27.-Woodrow Wilson will be President for four years more by virtue of a popular plurality over Charles Evans Hughes f 689,465 votes, out of a tottal of 15,477,463 vôtes cast on November 7 for the two major political parties. This ttottal does not include votes for the Socialist, Prohibition or Socialist-abor candidates.

The figures, as assembled today by the United Press are based, in a majority of cases, on the official counts of the States, as certified to the elec

Increase 28 Per cent.

The Democratic candidate's stotal this year was an increase of 28 per cent over those agures. Similarly the Republican nominee (Taft) in 1912 polleled 3,484,956 votes. Hughes' tottal in 1916 was an increase of about 112 per cet. The tottal vote cast for the two major parties was 1,579,981 more than that cast in 1912 for the then three major political parties. In other words, there was an increase in 1916 of more than 11 per cent in the ttotal vote cast.

There is no way, on the basis of the figures themselves, to ascertain what became of the 4,119,507 Progress sive votes registered for Roosevelt four years ago.

Socialists Lose.

Figures for the nation-wide vote on the Socialist and Prohibition tickets are as yet incomplete, but it is estimated that Allan Benson, Socialist. received about 751,000-nearly 200,000 les than the Socialist ticket polled in 1912—and Prohibitionist Candidate Hanly, 225,200, or about 17,000 more than the same ticket received four years ago. Every State in the Union had a bigger tetal vote in 1916 than in 1912. Montana led in the list of biggest inreases, the Wilson-Hughes total being 143 per cent in excess of that she gave Wilson, Roosevelt and Taft four years ago. Illinois jumped here total 101 per cent-due to this year being the first time the women of the Sucker State have voted.

Increase In West. The Western States, without exception, showed an increase in vote. Oregon jumped 106 per cent; Utah, 34 per cent; Kansas, 75 per cent, California—which lost the election for Hughes—was another Western State showing a startling increase in the total vote. Four years ago, the State went to Roosevelt, and the total vote for the three candidates was $70,960. This year Wilson and Hughes logether, polled 928,805 votes an in-erease of 62 per cent. North Dakota was another State which increased its voting popula-tion in the four years past—by 37 per cent.

New York Vote Big.

New York had the biggest vote in her history-an 8 per cent increase over 1912.

Ohio's turn to Wilson was accom plished in a vote 20 per cent greater than in 1912. Texas gained 23 per The same canvass of figures shows Vote by States.

The total popular vote for the four candidates was 18,638,871, as against 15.045,322 in 1912. This is an increase of 3,593,549, accounted for by the in creased population and the votes of women in the suffrage States. The following is a table showing the vote by States for Wilson and Hughes:

GERMANY HONORS ANGLICAN BISHOP

The Right Rev. Herbert Bury Allowed to Visit Prison Camp At Ruhleben.

LONDON, Dec. 27 .- The Right Rev Herbert Bury, bishop of the Anglican Church for Northern Europe, the first and only Englishman that has been Big Gain In Total of Voting admitted to Germany during the war, has just returned to England and given out a remarkable story which has received prominence in the British newspapers.

Bishop Bury emphasized the courtesy of the German military authorities, who were anxious that he should see the improvements at the Ruhleben camp for British prisoners at which the clergyman spent a whole week. Bishop Bury's yisit to Ger-many also formed the subject of his sermon before his crowded congrega

Saw the Camp's Life.

"I remained at the camp except for visit to the war office at Berlin, where the administration connected with prisoners gave me an official reception, and for one day when visited the officers' camp at Blanken berghe. I was shown the whole life of the camp, and had my meals with the men in their lofts and horse boxes, and in spare moments received special messages for friends in Eng-

"I inspected the camp at Ruhleben from end to end, and addressed the men nightly. I held four services on Sunday. I witnessed an exhibition football match, a play at the theater, attended special concerts and, in fact, participated in all phases of camp

"In all my varied experience I havnever seen a better organized bit of community life. The prisoners ad-ministered their own affairs entirely. and the German guard and the official censor seemed to be there just to fulfil requirements.

Moral Standard.

"Among the 3,600 prisoners there is no crime, and the moral standard is much higher than is usual in a community of such dimensions. All kinds of civilizing, humanizing and spiritual of civilizing, humanizing and spiritual influences are at work. As for food, the men practically live upon their parcels from home. Everything that goes to the life of the camp in the way of materials has been sent out from England or provided at the expense of the British government.
"I may add that all letters from the men may be relied upon as accurate, as practically every one with whom I came in contact said they found it so difficult to persuade rela tions at home that they were no keeping something back.

In Full Sympathy. "The camp censor-a German officer is an absolutely fair and straight man, in full sympathy with the prisoners. Although he could have done so had he wished, he never once attended a meeting at which I spoke, and I was allowed to bring away every note I made and every paper given to me.
"In fact, I was never once interfer-slightest degree from full and uninterrupted connection with the men from start to finish. On the last night of my stay I obtained permission for the prisoners to sing 'God Save the King,' and this was re peated when I addressed the whole camp in the open air.
